Dear Parents,

This is a Campus Addendum to the District handbook. It is designed to outline campus applications of LHISD policy and procedures, and the Student Code of Conduct.

These guidelines are aligned with district board policy and any conflict between the district policy and campus definition will defer to the district handbook.

Our school programming is designed to address the physical, emotional, and social well-being of our students. Our expectations are in place for the safety and success for all of our students.

The information provided applies to all Intermediate students. Our expectations are high for respect, responsibility, and proactive development of the students' roles as a productive citizen.

Teachers can provide you with even more details about classroom procedures. We look forward to working with you within these guidelines to create the Best Intermediate School in the State.

Sincerely

Mr. Josh Curtis

Principal

Liberty Hill Intermediate

DISCIPLINE

Campus Behavior Expectations

- Be Safe
- Be Responsible
- Be Respectful

Campus Rules

1. Follow directions.
2. Listen carefully.
3. Work the entire period and do not disturb others.
4. Respect self, others, and property at all times.
5. Be safe.

Discipline Process

The teacher addresses initial discipline behaviors in the classroom. Students have the right to know what they are being accused of, to have their side of the story reported, and the consequences assigned. The general, daily corrections will follow three phases:

1. Correction: The supervising teacher will instruct the student on specific behavior within the classroom structure.
2. Warning: The teacher will warn the student that behavior has not corrected and inform them of their choices
3. Action: A corrective action is implemented and parent notified

The classroom teacher will handle classroom rule violations. Violations will be documented in Educator's handbook.

Repeated inappropriate or unacceptable school behavior documented results in an office referral and a teacher phone call or face-to-face conference with the student's parent or guardian.

Referrals for persistent misbehaviors in class result in the following consequences.

General Infractions:

First Referral	Visit with campus administration
Second Referral	Detention
Third Referral	Loss of Privileges
Fourth Referral	ISS

Serious Infractions: This may be a first referral; however, these incidents require 1-3 days ISS

Serious incidents included but are not limited to:

- Physical violence
- Disrespect of adults

- Profanity
- Behavior defined by an administrator as bullying (see Special Discipline and Procedure section – “bullying”).

Repetitive ISS

- Repeated ISS can result in alternative placement for 5-45 days. Students receive grade level instruction and required services, along with social skill training, and positive behavior support plan during long-term placement.

If a child is referred to the office, the referring teacher notifies the parents and a copy of the referral is sent home emailed to the parent after the student has conferenced with an administrator. The teacher, principal or parent may request a phone or personal conference at this time.

Possible classroom behavior actions

- Positive reward for improved or on target behavior (Panther Paws)
- Private conference with student
- Recess work alternative (repetitive incidences should result in a referral)
- Behavior goals/objectives
- In class behavior plan
- Phone call to parent
- Losing privileges
- Change of seating

1. The behavior is intentional and intended rather than accidental or inadvertent.
2. The behavior involves maliciousness on the part of the aggressor
3. There is an inherent demonstration of power, either perceived or actual by the offender over the target.

Cyber bullying

Cyberbullying is the willful and repeated harm inflicted through the use of computers, cell phones, and other electronic devices. Although most cyberbullying is created on computers, cell phones and other devices that are not owned by the district: however, if the result of this behavior interferes with learning, the school can investigate.

All reports of bullying should be reported to the teacher, paraprofessional, or administrators. Reports can be done verbally or on the anonymous website reporting system. The incident is turned over to the Counselor or Asst. Principal who will document and investigate reports and determine whether the incident is conflict that is normal in development or an example of bullying activity. The Asst. Principal will determine:

- Behavior consequences
- Referral to the counselor for individual and/or class training.
- Referral to social skills training.

Cell Phones: Student cell phones are to be turned off and put away during the school day. Cell used or heard during the day are confiscated, turned into the office, and a parent/guardian must come to school to retrieve them. In certain incidences, under specific direction of a teacher-led activity, personal devices may be used.

Cheating

Cheating is not tolerated. Copying others work, giving answers, prewritten answers, or turning in another's work for your own are not permitted.

- The first incident of cheating results in the student staying after school for detention and completing the work in its entirety on their own and a parent conference.
- The second incident of cheating requires a parent-teacher conference, completion of the work, and could result in further discipline action.

Homework

Students are given time each day to work on independent practice. Utilizing this time decreases evening homework. Students are provided a planner in which students can record assignments. Students should either be able to show you the completed work or the work requiring attention at home.

Homework includes but is not limited to:

1. Incomplete Daily Work
2. Special projects

Homework will not be given in every class on everyday except for 6th grade advanced math. Teachers will alternate when they give students homework. Students are expected to complete all homework on time to help with the daily practices of their educational experience. If a student does not complete their homework when it is due, they will stay after school either that day, or the day after it was due, for detention and to complete the assigned homework in its entirety. It will be up to the parent/guardian to pick up or find a ride for the student by 4:30 at the latest.

Conduct Before and After School

Teachers and administrators have full authority over student conduct at before- or after-school activities on district premises, and at school-sponsored events off district premises, such as play rehearsals, club meetings, athletic practices, and special study groups or tutorials. Students are subject to the same rules of conduct that apply during the instructional day and will be subject to consequences established by the Student Code of Conduct or any stricter standards of behavior established by the sponsor for extracurricular participants.

Fines

Fines will be assessed for damaged or lost materials. The fee for damaged or lost books is the replacement cost. Library privileges will be suspended until the book is paid for or returned. A refund will be made if the book is returned.

Forgery

Forgery is not tolerated. If a student is found to have forged a parent or guardian's signature, consequences could include detention time, and/or loss of privileges.

Gum Chewing

Students are not allowed to chew gum during school. Gum chewing interferes with class discussion, may present hygiene concerns, and causes damage to property when not disposed of properly.

Money or Other Valuables at School

Students are highly discouraged to bring extra money or other valuables to school. The school is not responsible for the loss or theft of money and other student property.

Prohibited Items

Prohibited items (such as caps worn in the school, cell phones out during the day, electronic devices etc.) will be picked up from the students and returned to his or her parent.

Social Events

School rules apply to social and extracurricular events that occur on school grounds. All guests are expected to observe the same rules of conduct as the students. Social events may include but are not limited to:

- evening performances
- field trips or field day
- book fairs
- assemblies

Guests attending these events are expected to observe the same rules, conduct code, and appropriate dress as students, and a student inviting a guest will share responsibility for the conduct of his or her guest.

Please note: Sponsors of student clubs and performing groups such as the band, choir, and theater may establish standards of behavior—including consequences for misbehavior—that are stricter than those for students in general. If a violation is also a violation of school rules, the consequences specified by the Student Code of Conduct or by local policy will apply in addition to any consequences specified by the organization's standards of behavior. [For further information, see policies at FM and FO.]

GRADING POLICIES

An appropriate number of grades to reflect mastery levels are recorded in all classes.

- Number or percentage grades are used for language arts, math, science, and social studies and electives.

Report Card Averages

- Daily work average will count as 50%.
- Test average will count 50%. Common assessments will be given by all grade-level content teachers at the end of units.
- Your child must achieve at least 80% of the common assessments to be evaluated as on grade-level.
- All courses will receive yearly averages
- A student must pass ELA and Math, and either Social Studies or Science to be eligible for automatic promotion.
- Students are subject to state assessment requirements for promotion. All content classes and state assessments must meet minimum mastery levels for a student to be considered for automatic promotion to the next grade level.
- ALL GRADES WILL BE AN AUTHENTIC REFLECTION OF mastery level work

Lesson Frames

A copy of unit outlines, including TEKS, vocabulary, test days and special events, will be updated and available on your teacher's web page.

Progress Reports will be sent home for students who aren't passing at midpoint of each grading period. Progress reports will be sent electronically provided on:

Family Access

Parents may monitor their student's' grades online through Family Access. Information on how to enroll in Family Access can be found on LHISD website. Grades are updated each Tuesday by the end of school day.

Students shall be expected to make up assignments and tests after absences. Students shall be granted one day for each day of absence to make up work that was missed.

Reteach and Retest

Any time a student fails a test, the teacher will review/reteach the material using an appropriate strategy. The reteaching a concept is a required intervention.

For students to retest, learning effort must be applied by the student. All assignments, study guides, corrections, and/or reviews must be complete prior to the retest deadlines set by the teacher.

If a student is completing assignments and study guides, reviewing and studying prior to a test, no student should require repeated retests. Multiple retests may indicate the need for afterschool study hall, or interventions.

The final grade will be an average from the first and second test administration.

Intervention

Students not on their grade-level according to the previous year's STAAR test will be placed in intervention. Strategies include one or a combination of the following:

- Small group instruction for specific skill and concept development
- Individual instruction
- Assignment length
- Reading intervention support
- Math intervention support
- Included instruction
- Use of manipulatives
- Focused study of objectives and skills
- Technology support
- Tutorials
- Re-teaching
- Further testing or retention

Students requiring further interventions require further considerations. Further consideration occurs in RTI (Response to Intervention) conferences. Parents will be notified in writing when a student's progress is being reviewed.

Advanced Math Group

Objective: The students with advanced capabilities in math are challenged in an accelerated curriculum. Students who exhibit mastery of all grade-level skills and have a solid foundation into the next grade-level curriculum are included.

The goal will be to move students through the first half of sixth grade curriculum as a minimum.

To remain in Advanced Math, a student must:

- 1) Maintain 70% or above grade average in math and passing all other core classes.
- 2) Exhibit progress in the accelerated curriculum as measured in benchmarks, assignments and other local assessments
- 3) Participate in class while completing all other academic requirements including homework.
